

10 Reasons to Enroll in Early Childhood at Hales Corners Lutheran

1. A Christ-centered environment.

Including a faith-based program, Bible lessons, songs and stories. Children attend chapel regularly throughout the year.

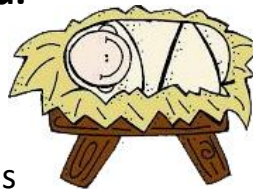

2. Spiritual development, including daily prayer.

Spiritual development is woven through the curriculum as we learn to treat others as Jesus treats us.

3. True meanings of holidays are taught and celebrated.

Students learn true meaning of special days throughout the school year. Christmas and End-of-the-Year programs showcase your child's learning throughout the year.

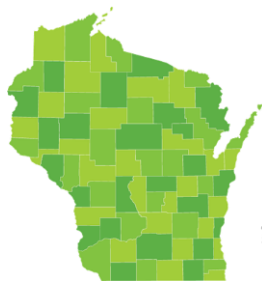

4. Structured learning.

Children participate through play, self-discovery, observation and hands-on learning.

5. State certified teachers.

We are certified by National Lutheran School Accreditation. Each year we place higher than the national average on our test scores.

6. Play-based learning.

Children learn in carefully organized experiences, rich in literature, dramatic play, music, art, and large/small motor activities.

7. Music, gym, technology and science lab classes.

Children participate in extra classes (specials) either weekly or monthly. These classes are part of our curriculum.

8. Learners Clubs.

A month-to-month, multi-age enrichment class is offered to extend your child's learning through thematic units.

9. Infant & Toddler Enrichment Classes.

"Parent & Me" classes offered for the growing family. Infant class and Toddler classes are taught throughout the year. We care about the whole family at HCL!

10. Teachers echo your family's morality.

When your child asks you "Life's Big Questions," you are assured that teachers are echoing your family's morality at school.
